Ecclesiastes 5:1-7

10-18-2026

1. Ecclesiastes 5:1–2 teaches us to approach God with reverence and humility. What does it look like to “guard your steps” when gathering with God’s people? How can you better prepare your heart to worship God each Sunday?

2. We gather to hear from God rather than simply to hear from one another. What are some things that distract you from listening to God’s Word? What practical steps can you take to become a more attentive listener and doer of the Word?

3. Read Ecclesiastes 5:2–3 and James 1:19–20. Why can speaking too quickly or too much lead us into sin? Consider your conversations with other believers this past week. Were your words characterized by encouragement, humility, and love, or by complaining, gossip, or criticism?

4. Read Ecclesiastes 5:4–7. Why does God take our promises and commitments seriously? Have you made any commitments to God or others that you have neglected? What would it look like to demonstrate greater integrity in keeping your word?

5. Pastor Bo highlighted three commitments of church membership: safeguarding unity, sharing responsibility, and serving faithfully. Which of these three areas needs the most attention in your life right now? Identify one specific action you can take this week to strengthen your commitment to Christ and his church.
